CA. Estate Dispute
T-Property

Will: 1865; Robert P. Hamblen: Lee County

To the Honorable judge of the Circuit Court Court of Lee County -

Your aratrix Mary E. Hamblen humbly complaining, represents that on day of 1 18 she intermarried with one Robert Hamblen, who departed this life on the 27th day of ~~december~~ 1859 intestate in fact; but she states, that after his death a paper was found, which was executed previous to the marriage with him. ^{to wit - last year 1856} This paper one Richard M.
Hamblen, procured, in the County Court of said County, as the last will and testament of the said Robert, and the same was by the said Court, admitted to probate as and for his last will, at the February term of the said Court, for the year ¹⁸⁶⁷ ~~1859~~.
And for his last will. A copy of this paper, together with a transcript, of the record admitting the same to record, is herewith filed, as part of this bill marked A.

At which time Richard M. Hamblen who was named as executor in said writing, qualified, as such.

Your aratrix states, that she is advised that the said paper, thus admitted to probate, as the will of her said Husband ought to have been rejected, and held null and void, because, because the marriage of the said Robert P. Hamblen with your aratrix, subsequent to the execution thereof, worked a revocation thereof. - The said will was admitted, to probate, on the motion of the said Richard M. Hamblin, and no one being summoned in to contest its validity, she supposes. The facts were not made known, to the court, else it could not so egregiously err.

Here youratrix thinks proper to state, that she was the mother, of one child by her said husband, who departed this life before its father: And he, her said husband, departed this life, without any lineal descendants, living at the time of his death. Under those circumstances she is advised that she is entitled as distributee, to the one-half of his personal estate, after the payment of his debts.

She further states that dower, has already been assigned, in her said husband's real estate, but she has received nothing out of his personal estate - The said Richard M. Hamblin, acting as executor of the paper admitted to probate, as the last will of the said Robert, took into possession all the personal estate; the amount of which youratrix does not know; but she believes, from the best information she ~~can~~ obtain, there must be a large personal estate. - The said Robert P. had been for many years before his death, a practicing physician, with an extensive and lucrative practice; he had also been interested, in some two or three, mercantile, establishments. One of which, she is informed was in the State of Tennessee, under the conduct and controul of the said Richard M. - But as there, things are unknown to youratrix in details and known to the said Richard M. She prays that he be compelled, to discover the mercantile, firms in which the said Robert P. was interested, with the said Richard M.; and unsettled at the time of the said Robert P.'s death: that the state of the business so far as known to him be fully and fairly discovered, so as to exhibit the amount the said Robert was entitled to:

He will also give a statement of all debts, which were due, her husband or in which he had an interest, so far as he may know; and also state specifically, the whole personal estate which has come to his hands - Youratrix is advised that the said Richard M. will be viewed as an executor de son tort and held strictly responsible, for all the estate over which he has assumed, to exercise legal controul. She now states the devise under said will one Tho^m Hamblin who is dead leaving one ^{son} ~~daughter~~ named Eliza Hamblin, Richard M. Hamblin, Henry Hamblin, ~~James~~ Hamblin, Louisa Graham ^{who has in Germany with the given} ~~by~~ Cynthia Lowell wife of Henry Lowell, Rachel Perry, and Jane Gregory ^{who has for some years with George Campbell} ~~The said Thomas M. Henry, Hamblin~~ ~~and Louisa~~ ^{Graham} are dead

The object of this bill therefore is to have the said writing, admitted, to probate, as the last will and testament of the said Robert P. Hamblin, deceased. set aside held void and counted for naught. She therefore prayed That the said Richard M. Hamblin, executor & devisee, and the following devisees, to wit Andrew M. Elly admr of the estate of Thomas M. Hamblin, Champ Hamblin the heir at law of the said Thomas M. Hamblin, Henry J Morgan admr of Henry Hamblin, James Hamblin, Lavinia Groham Henry Towell and Cynthia his wife Thomas Grubb and Rachael his wife George Applegate and Lucy his wife ^{of the said L. Hamblin} be made parties defendants to this bill, and answer the same on oath; that on a hearing a decree be rendered in this cause, setting aside and holding void the said writing probated, as the last will & testament of Robert P. Hamblin deceased. That distribution according to the law of descents be made among the parties, entitled as though no prior or pretended will had been pro-bated. That the said Richard M. make all and singular the discoveries collect for in this bill - And for a guardian ad litem to be appointed to protect & defend the infant devisees - And for all such other further & general relief as may in equity be deemed just My spe issue &c -

Agave & Incliner

+ Your brother filed here to a copy of his marriage certificate with the said R. P. Hamblin as evidence of the fact and to show when the marriage was celebrated.

To the Hon John A Kelley Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County

Yours Obedient Son, E Hamblen humbly complaining represents that on the 27 day of October 1859 he intimated with one Robert P Hamblen who departed this life intestate in fact on on the ~~27th~~^{19th} day of ~~October~~^{January} 1859 - She states that after his death his death a paper was found which had been executed by him on the 19th day of January 1856 and which was at the time of its execution intended to be his will. This paper was produced in the County Court of said County by Richard M Hamblen, on the 18th day of December 1865 for probate and after several continuances, the same was admitted to probate as and for the will of the said Robt P Hamblen at the February term 1867, and the said Richard M Hamblen adjudged as the executor. This proceeding was entirely ex parte, no one having, nor was any one summoned to oppose the same. A transcript of the said paper is admitted to record in this will book marked A. The devises under said will are Thos. M. Hamblen. Richd M. Hamblen. Rachael King. Jane Gregory. Lavinia Graham. - And by another clause he bequeaths one dollar to his mother and each of his brothers & sisters

Your brother states that she is advised that the said paper admitted to probate as the will of her said husband was not ^{his} will because it was made and executed by him previous to his marriage with your brother which as before stated was on the 27 day of Oct 1859 which will more satisfactorily appear from a transcript of the marriage certificate herewith filed marked B.

The object of this bill is to have the said paper admitted to probate as aforesaid set aside and annulled, - and further to have it ascertain the property which belonged to her said husband and to obtain a decree for her distributable share against the proper party,

She states that her dower has been assigned her out of the land owned by her husband at the time of his death and nothing further is sought out of his real estate,

Your brother gave birth to one child by her said husband, - it died before its father who has left no lineal descendants, and she is therefore advised that she is by law entitled to one-half of his personal estate The said Richard M. Hambleton has taken possession of all the personal estate which belonged to her husband the amount whereof is unknown to her. - She thinks it must have amounted to several thousands dollars. He was a physician and had a great many debts due him. And besides he and the said Richard M had been engaged in the mercantile business for many years, which was fully conducted by the said Richard and large profits were realized all of which are in his hands - The devise that Mr Hamblin is dead. He left one son, his heir at law his name is Charles. And Andrew M Ely is the administrator of the estate, Lavinia Graham is also dead her personal representative is Charles L Hamblin. The said Rachael Thayer is married to one Thos Smith and Jane Grogan is married to George Campbell. - Lavinia Hamblin the mother of the said Thos P is also dead and her estate has been committed to the said Charles L Hamblin.

The said Thos P. Hamblin's distributees were the following to wit Richard M. Hamblin Thos M. Hamblin, Henry L Hamblin, James Hamblin, Cynthia Larnell wife of Henry Larnell, Edie Graham wife of Thos Graham Lavinia Hamblin, his mother, and Jane O'Brien, The said - The said Henry L Hamblin is dead and Henry J Morgan is the administrator of his estate, Edie Graham is also dead and her estate has been committed to Charles L Hamblin Shff.

The prayer of your Orator therefore is that the said deceased legatee and distributees of deceased Mr. P. Hamblin be made defendants to this bill and answer the same on oath that the said Richard M. Hamblin fully disclose all the matters pertaining to the partnership true and false business between him and the said Nott P. And show the purchases and sales made and profits realized and how much is in his hands or under his control as survivor and what came to his hands, and hereafter disclose all other effects which came to his hands belonging to the said Nott P. That on a hearing the said paper admitted to probate be annulled and that a commission be directed to state settle and adjust his account so as to have his liability ascertained to the estate of his said husband and that a decree be rendered in favor of your Orator and the other distributees according to their rights, and grant general relief.

Robert P. Humblins Will

100

Not chd.

In the name of God, Amen! I, Robert P. Hambleton, of Lee County, Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind, and considering the uncertainty of this life, do make and ordain this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all others, which I may have heretofore made.

1. After willing and bequeathing my soul to God who gave it, I will and bequeath unto my brother Thomas M. Hambleton my land on which I live, consisting of one tract conveyed to my father Champ Hambleton deceased, by Richard Beatty deceased, one by Thomas Scott, one grant by the Commonwealth of Virginia to my father, and one grant to myself, said grant lying in the Cedars.

2nd. I will and bequeath unto my two brothers Richard M. Hambleton and Thomas M. Hambleton jointly all the land which I now own, which once belonged to the Ely tract, conveyed to me by Henry D. Hambleton, John M. the Ely, and two of Charles Hambleton's daughters, also my interest, which is my part as distributee of the estate of Daniel B. Hambleton deceased, in the Stone-house tract with the following exceptions:-

3. I will and bequeath unto my two brothers Richard M. Hambleton and Thomas M. Hambleton all my personal estate, together with all both real and personal - that I may hereafter acquire in consideration that they jointly pay to Rachael King two hundred dollars, Jane Gregory one hundred dollars, and Levina Graham one hundred dollars.

4. I will and bequeath unto my mother, brothers, and sisters and their heirs each the sum of one dollar. I do hereby constitute and appoint my brother Richard M. Hambleton Executor of this my last will and Testament.

At a County Court begun and held for Lee County, at the Court House thereof, on Monday, the 18th day of December 1865.

The last will and Testament of Robert P. Hamblen deceased, was this day produced in Court, and proved by the oath of David Miller, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and continued for further proof; and on the motion of Richard M. Hamblen, the executor therein named, a Commission is awarded him to take the deposition of John P. Ridings the other subscribing witness thereto, who is a non-resident of this state, and permission is granted the said Hamblen, Executor as aforesaid, to withdraw the aforesaid original will and Testament, and leaving in its stead an attested office copy.

On another day, to wit: At a County Court begun and held for Lee County, at the Court House thereof, on Monday, the 18th day of February 1867.

The last will and Testament of Robert P. Hamblen deceased was this day again produced in Court upon the further evidence of David Miller, one of the attesting witnesses thereto, who testified that the said Robert P. Hamblen, in the presence of himself and John P. Ridings, the other attesting witness thereto, at the same time, and in the presence of each other, acknowledged the said writing to be his act and deed; and desired the witness and the said Ridings to sign the same as attesting witnesses. Whereupon the said will, being duly stamped, is ordered to be recorded; and on the motion of Richard M. Hamblen, the executor therein named, who took the oath as such executor and, together with Harvey M. Hall and Thomas Baylor, his securities, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $1500.00, conditioned according to law, leave is granted him for obtaining Probate of the said will in due form, the said bond being duly stamped.
